TEACHING ALL NATIONS NEWSLETTER
JULY-AUGUST 2019

FOLLOW THE TUTTONS AS WE TRAVEL FROM NORTHERN MICHIGAN . . .

to the farming country of Central Indiana. We are spending this month behind a farmer's barn (pictured on left), overlooking soybean fields and listening to the cackling of chickens. While here, we have been able to visit a number of great churches and have been able to visit our youngest daughter as she fights cancer for the second time. Please pray for her.

FOLLOW ADAM OGLE, THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR FOR TAN, AND DR. SIEMER, the director of field services for Fundamental Baptist Missions International, as they travel together this next month to Malawi, Africa. They will have the privilege of training 300 national pastors on how to start Bible institutes in their churches to train men for full-time service. This will be the first trip that our materials have been translated into a local language (pictured at left).

FOLLOW OUR PROGRESS AS WE WRITE THE TOP BIBLE-STUDY GUIDES.

The eighth TOP Bible-study guide completed this month is entitled "Get Connected to God . . . by Prayer" (pictured at left). These Bible studies are now available. These can be ordered by email at top@cbcanton.com. A suggested donation of $3.00 per study guide will help pay for overseas flights for Teaching All Nations.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support,

Ed & Carolyn Tutton
Hosea 4:6

PS. Consider sending a SPECIAL donation to help with the expenses of the Malawi trip. Send donations to FBMI Missions/TAN, 507 State Street, Hammond, IN 46320. God bless you.
