Dear Praying Churches and Friends,

As I look around this area in which God in His divine providence has placed us, I see an area that needs the truth of God's Word. It burdens and breaks my heart to see marriages destroyed by sin, teenagers rebelling blatantly against all authority in their lives, children experimenting with cigarettes and drugs, and a government that sits by trying to legislate the sin away, only to find it doesn't work. Sound familiar? Truth be told, we find the same problems of sin no matter what corner of the world the will of God takes us. Thank God we know the answer! The answer will not be found in a governmental building, here or anywhere else. The Answer is found in a Person, the only begotten Son of God named Jesus! We have the Answer, so let's talk about Him!

Jesus has been incredibly good to us these past few months. He has met our every need and is helping us to learn what our needs truly are. Thank God for the promises of the Word of God that we can trust and base our faith upon. In the past two months, we have seen an entire family trust Christ as their personal Saviour and follow in obedience with believer's baptism. What a blessing it was to baptize four from the same family outside in February!

Speaking about Jesus, Pearlene, a lady who has been coming so faithfully, has seen her life absolutely changed because of Christ. She is a completely different person, and she is growing so fast! I can only fathom and imagine the heart of Jesus and how thrilled He must be to see one of His children growing closer to Him at such a rapid pace. Pearlene also got baptized in February and brought one of her daughters and her son and his family to see her get baptized. Every one of them has told her and/or us that their mother is not the same mother they knew growing up. We know Who has done the changing—JESUS!

"Jesus Is All the World to Me"—I love that song. Thank God for Jesus. He surely has kept my family well these past few months. Our winter even seemingly ended around January 1st. We've had a mild winter and have not envied the States at all! I hope you haven't been stuck in the snow too many times. We suffered for Jesus in snowless and sunless weather, but it still was in the 40s or 50s some days. Christ sure knew where to put us. Our boys are doing great here, and they enjoy the Sunday school and Junior Church. Nathan will be turning one year old in April, which seems unreal. Holly has been investing a lot of time in the ladies of Grace by doing personal discipleship, and God has greatly blessed her efforts. I'm thrilled that Holly and I can serve Christ together.

Thank you for praying for us. We, too, are praying for you. We covet your prayers and are deeply grateful for all the expressions of love you show to us. Thank you. Let's keep talking about Jesus!

Yours for the souls of England,

Justin, Holly, David, Jonathan, and Nathan Williams
