Dear Praying Churches and Friends,

It is hard to believe that summer has already nearly passed, and the fall season is beginning. Time sure does fly by. I thought in college that after college was over, time would slow down. Boy was I wrong! Time just keeps flying by at an unstoppable pace. Truly, when the Bible tells us that our life is but "a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away," it refers to how short our time here is, and we need to be busy about our Father's business.

Soul winning is always exciting, and I have been thrilled about how many men God has brought across my path to lead to Christ. Recently in Ohio, I was soul winning when I met a sweet-spirited couple. The husband listened intently while the wife attended to their daughter. Even with distractions and a commotion going on, he listened intently and received Christ as his Saviour! Unfortunately, they had to leave right away, or the wife would have been free to listen to the Gospel. Just a few doors later, a single man came to the door. I presented the Gospel to him, and he, too, bowed his head and trusted Christ. Two men in just a short time received the eternal promise of Glory! Let's talk about Jesus! There are people waiting to hear and just need a willing vessel to tell them of Christ.

God has been very gracious to us, and we have seen our support level steadily increase almost 2% every month for the last 3 to 4 months now. We now have 91% coming in! Open Door Baptist Church has shown the patience of Job; they have endured this time and are extremely anxious about our arrival. Looking at our recent increases has persuaded us to set a definite departure timeframe towards the end of January or the beginning of February 2009. This will be a great time for us to go since airline tickets will be lower and costs will be down. We have reached the last stretch of support needed and sincerely need your prayers and faithfulness. God has blessed with a full schedule this fall in missions conferences and meetings. We will be very busy as we get the final arrangements put together that are needed for our departure and all the meetings.

Thank you so much for praying for us and with us as we get ready to leave for the ministry God has graciously prepared for us. My family and I pray for you, and we are honored that so many have partnered with us to help reach this world for Christ. Please pray particularly for my mother-in-law. She is battling cancer, but Holly has been able to spend some time this summer with her. Praise God that disease and sickness are not something we will deal with in Heaven! Thank you once again for your prayers and support. What an exciting adventure deputation has been, and we are so thankful for all that you have done for us!

Yours for the souls of England,

Justin, Holly, David, and Jonathan Williams
