A WHOLE NEW WORLD!

Greetings to our brethren in Christ! We're finally beginning to adjust to our new world here in Thailand. It would be an understatement to say that things are very different here.

Long, floppy-eared cows walk in the roads, and wild dogs roam free everywhere! The rules of the road seem to be only suggestions. Motorcycles zoom past you on all sides.

While visiting an orphanage recently, we had both the "joy" and fright of having a giant bull elephant walk towards us in our lane while traveling home that evening—that is not exactly something you want to see in the dark!

Interestingly enough, the mountain right near our house is called Cobra Mountain—kind of suggestive, if you ask me. As of yet, we haven't seen any snakes; however, we have had quite a few lizards running up and down our walls. They sure are fast, and they are impossible to catch.

MINISTRY NEWS

Since we've been in Thailand, we've had the privilege of going soul winning many times. By God's grace, I have already been able to lead a few people to the Lord. Elizabeth was able to lead some children to the Lord one day as well.

Recently I began working a truck (bus) route in a village thirty minutes away. A young man named Star will be translating for me while I am learning the Thai language.

Our church is very exciting. God brings us first-time visitors every week, and souls get saved and baptized every week as well. Without a doubt, God is doing great things here in Southeast Asia!

19½ inches long. Mom and baby are doing very well. Recently Christabel asked whether Samuel would be speaking Thai or English, because he was born in Thailand. I think she thinks he's Thai because he was born here.

Little Emanuel has some more exciting news to share with you. He just turned four years old on November 8. He had a very enjoyable birthday party, and he's so sorry that you couldn't make it to his party and have one of his brownies.

FAMILY NEWS

The big news for our family is that little Samuel Elijah has finally arrived. At birth he weighed 8.6 pounds, and he was Well, thank you for everything you do. Your faithful support is what has gotten us to the field, and we believe our partnering together will result on much fruit on Christ's behalf. As always, may the Lamb that was slain receive the due reward of His suffering!
