Convert Now Teaching Sunday School: “A few years ago, I met Isaac Appiah Kubi while I was out soul winning. I sat down with him in his house and shared the Gospel with him and several of his friends. Isaac soon started coming to my church. After about a month, his brother Abraham started coming as well. Now Isaac is one of the Sunday school teachers in our church, and his brother Abraham is also a great help to the church.

“In March of this year, we started a Bible study on Tuesday evenings in Kuntense. The first attendance was 10 members, but now it has gone up to 23. We have been teaching on salvation.”

Easter Program: “By the grace of God, this year Easter was celebrated by the Fundamental Baptist Churches of Adwafo, Bekwei, Kuntense, and Feyiase. [These are churches which are all close to Lake Bosomtwe outside Kumasi. The Adwafo and Feyiase churches are second-generation churches, and the Bekwei and Kuntense churches are third-generation churches.] The goal of this program was to reach our area for Christ. The theme for the camp meeting was ‘The Benefit of the Cross for the Saved and the Unsaved.’

“The senior pastor of Fundamental Baptist Church of Boyhen, Pastor Speer, was our guest speaker. The preaching of the cross was challenging to the saved and the unsaved alike. About 500 total attended the program, and about 40 visitors realized their need for salvation. The church in Kuntense has been following up on these 40.”

Loving the Word and Work of God: “I met Appiah, Nana Osei, Akwesi, and Bismark as they were sitting in front of their house at Esreso. I preached to them, and they trusted Jesus Christ as their Saviour. Appiah and Akwesi came to church the next day, and they have been coming now every Sunday.

“Brother Moses is growing in the Lord. He loves the Word and work of God. He often goes soul winning with me, and he is now teaching the Sunday school children.

“Two of my children, Emmanuel and Bernard, were able to bring one soul each to the church recently.”
