Child Says, “I want to get saved!” “My family and I went soul winning together in Asawasi. We met a lady whose name was Auntie Ama. Her young son, Nana Kwame, was with her. My wife witnessed to Auntie Ama, and she got saved. Then her son looked at my wife and said, ‘I want to get saved.’ My wife was able to win him to Christ as well, and they both came to church on Sunday.

“I went to Komfo Anokye Teaching Hospital to visit one of my church members. While I was there, I met a schoolmate whom I had not seen since we finished junior high. He is now a doctor at that hospital. That day I was able to lead him to Christ, and he came to church the following Sunday.

“I’m praying for God to provide the funds for us to purchase land on which our church can build a building.” Pastor Gyasi Boateng, Asawasi, Ghana

Bouncy Baby Girl: “My wife Margaret delivered our fourth child about two weeks ago [mid-May]. She arrived at the hospital at 1 a.m. but did not deliver until 4 p.m. While she waited, she took the opportunity to witness to one of the nurses called Linda. I bless God for our new bouncy baby girl.

“Recently one of the soul winners in my church witnessed to a man called Mr. Francis Gyamera, and he trusted Jesus Christ as his Saviour. Mr. Gyamera is now a member of our church, and this past Sunday [May 17], he even came to church with his wife and his three children.

“There is a village nearby from which we already have 6 people that come to our church. We want you to pray for us so that we can start a new church in that village.”

Three New Bible Studies: “I met Thomas in front of his house in Foase. I approached him with the Gospel, and he got saved. He promised to come to our church, and he kept his promise. Since then, he has been coming to church and even helped during one of our church work days.

“Recently we have started three new home Bible studies. Two of these are hosted in the homes of two of my converts, Adams Ayubah and Godfred.”
