Romans 1:16, “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.”

January-February 2016

Beloved Pastor and Brethren,

Fraternal greetings to each of you, hoping that the life of our Lord be manifest in each of us for our benefit and joy in the faith.

The Lord has been very good to us! We praise Him, because after we have been waiting on Him for so many years, we now have a better place where we can meet together as a church, with comfort and space for further growth. In these recent months, the work has been hard to organize, but by His grace and the efforts of our church members, the most important work has already been done.

One of our recent blessings has been several visitors who have been attending church, reaping fruit from the work we have been sowing in the new community where we moved. We have a good plan to visit, invite, and win souls without leaving a single house. Ten visitors, who have been saved and live near our new location, have come in the past two months. Please, I beg you with all my heart, pray for Jean Carlos, who is one of those who has been attending. This brother has an alcohol problem, and we are praying that God will release him of it.

One of the goals we have set this year is to bring to church the parents of the children we bring on our routes. For two Sundays in a row, we have brought several parents. Five have been saved. Among them is a family of eight, and all have been attending throughout the month of February. This has been a great encouragement to the captains and workers of the routes. In the last two months, 97 people have received Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour. Glory to God!

I would like to share the testimony of one of these converts—Aridia. After attending a spiritualism meeting, she was facing a lot of problems with the Devil. Every night the demons were visiting Aridias's home. They raised her bed, moved objects, and made all kinds of noise. As result of this, Aridia was very sick; she was suffering from nerve-wracking insomnia and depression. My soul-winning partner, Geuris Nunez, led Aridia to the Lord. The same night after being saved, the demons stopped visiting her house. She is sleeping well, her nerves are better, and she has found a job. She came to me and asked to be baptized. Glory to God our Lord Who came to liberate those who are oppressed by the Devil! She said, “Preacher, the demons have not returned.”

Romans 1:16, “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.”

The months of March and April, we will be celebrating our Missions and Family Conferences and our Spring Program. Please pray for these events. We need the power of God in us.

Again, thank you for your fraternal love and your financial support. Your investment in our ministry for so many years is a sign of your great love for the cause of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Glory to Him forever!

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for our goal to bring the parents of our bus kids to church.
2. Pray for the upcoming Missions and Family Conferences and the Spring Program.
3. Pray that God would provide US$150,000.00 to buy the church property that we are renting now.

Because Jesus Christ lives,
