Church Plant and National Pastor Spotlight

Thank you for partnering with Team Ghana and our church-planting efforts. Please pray that, through these men, their families, and ministries, the Word of God would be glorified.

Pastor Rexford Aning: “God has been so good to us in that He gave us 11 baptisms several weeks ago. Also, we want to praise the Lord for answering our prayers concerning the new Bible studies at Sosuanso. Our church member Bismark Oduro, after hearing the Gospel, has never stopped begging me to go to his home village and start a church there so that his family and friends could also hear the Gospel. On July 19, we started going there, and it has always been an encouragement to see people saved and come to the Bible studies. At the end of August, we were there for Bible studies; but before we could start, Bismark and I had won about four people to Christ already, and in the evening we had 16 adults show up for our studies.” – Fiapre, Sunyani, Brong Ahafo Region, Ghana

Pastor Philip Gafatsi: “I met Emmanuel Norglo at his house and had the opportunity to preach the Gospel to him. He trusted Christ as his personal Saviour! Dickson Afonope is one of my converts who now attends our church. He is faithful to the services and also comes for soul winning. Just recently he brought three of his family members to church. In my church I am teaching about how to be a productive soul winner, and I thank God for the response. The good news is that three new church members have started coming soul winning.” – Sokode, Volta Region, Ghana

Pastor George Menyon: “We started our Bible institute on October 15. We have eight students signed up for the first time, and we expect two more very soon. Please pray with us. On the far right is Pastor Flomo, who is one of our teachers, and next to him is Brother Gabriel Looh, the Dean of Students.” – Monrovia, Liberia

Pastor Abraham Subui: “Mr. Oscar Yeng was a Roman Catholic. He was trusting his good works to take him to Heaven, but he changed his mind after I presented the Gospel to him. Last Sunday he brought two people to church; they also got saved after hearing the Gospel. Amen. Joan Womme is a teenager whom I won to Christ. She is now faithful to church and to soul winning. She said that if someone has won her for Christ, then she has to win others for Christ.” – Nkwanta, Brong Ahafo, Ghana
