December 2019

Dear Praying Friends,

Thank you for bearing with me in the necessary evil of raising more support for the church planting in Mexico.

I hope I will not have to make any more such trips. The Lord has been generous with me in the love offerings and in the support, and yet there is not enough to cover the needs. By the grace of God, though, I will trust the Lord with whatever comes in. I would love to spend 15-20 years in Mexico without having to raise more funds or even take another furlough.

Much more than money, we need the Lord to get involved in the starting of churches in Mexico. The people need a supernatural work of the Lord in their hearts to be delivered from centuries of Catholicism and corruption. Your prayers will make the greatest difference.

As I write this letter, I am back in Mexico. The soul winning picked up last week, as I spent six days at the border. I was able to get a temporary resident visa and buy some things I have been wanting. Four people made decisions while I was shopping, and another two made decisions during block soul-winning times.

Prayer Requests

1. Pray for the new church we will be starting in Querétaro in January.
2. Pray that the churches I visited in the United States will take me on for support.
3. Pray for a permanent place to live for a home base. I have to move again for the third time in just three years.
4. Pray for the power of God in winning souls, discipleship, preaching, and teaching the blessed Word of God.

Again, thank you for your patience with this fundraising trip. I have been praying for you. It is a great privilege and honor to serve the Lord regardless of finances.

Yours for souls,

Chris Sage
