Church Plant and National Pastor Spotlight

Pastor Kingsley Addai: “A few weeks ago, Agya Opoku was invited to our church by one of our members, and I preached the Gospel to him the day he came. The following week, I asked him about his salvation and discovered he had not understood what I had preached. I shared the Gospel with him again, and this time he understood. Since then, he has been coming to our church faithfully. He has dedicated his time to clearing the weeds around our church property, as there is a need. He has a zeal for lost souls, but he is battling with alcohol. Pray for him to be victorious over it.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Mampong, Kumasi, Ashanti Region, Ghana [Pastor Addai graduated from our Bible college in February 2018. He started the church in Mampong in 2019.]

Pastor Rexford Aning: “I thank the Lord for Ebenezer Nii Odartey’s life. He was saved many years ago and was coming to church faithfully. Later on, he backslid. Three weeks ago, I went to visit him, and he shared his heart with me. He thanked me for not giving up on him. He promised he would come back to our church again and learn more about God. He has been faithful since that day. I have started the discipleship lessons all over again with him. Please continue to pray for him.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Fiapre, Sunyani, Ghana [Pastor Aning graduated from our Bible college in June 2012. He started the church in Fiapre in October 2013.]

Pastor Gyasi Boateng: “I met Nana Kofi, Agyenim, and Samuel at a football field. I asked them the question ‘If you were to die today, are you sure you would go to Heaven?’ They all said, ‘Yes.’ They believed that if they did good works and went to church, they would go to Heaven. I presented the Gospel to them, and they all believed in Christ as their Saviour. They were very excited to receive the Gospel. Pray for them to grow.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Asawase, Kumasi, Ghana [Pastor Boateng graduated from our Bible college in January 2011.]

Pastor Philip Gafatsi: “I met a boy at a store. I went there to buy an item, but the boy did not know the price of the item. He said, ‘My mother has gone to get something from the house, and she will be back in a few minutes.’ The boy offered me a chair to sit on and wait for his mother. I used that opportunity to preach the Gospel to him, and he trusted Christ as his Saviour. Pray for more laborers and for the growth of our church.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Sokode, Volta Region, Ghana [Pastor Gafatsi graduated from our Bible college in January 2011.]

Pastor Jonas Osei-Owusu: “Acka Bernard is a taxi driver at Kenyasi. Bernard was arguing with another driver, and I asked him why they were arguing. He said, ‘We are arguing about why Christians go to church on Sundays.’ I took that opportunity to preach the Gospel to him. He was excited to hear the Gospel for the first time, and he believed in Jesus as his only Saviour. After I gave him the Gospel, he took my mobile number. He said he would stay in contact with me for more enlightenment of the truth. Pray for him to grow in the Lord.” – Fundamental Baptist Church, Kuntanase, Ashanti Region, Ghana [Pastor Osei-Owusu received a certificate from our Bible college in December 2011.]
