October - November 2015

Dear Pastors and Supporting Friends,

Currently I am teaching Minor Prophets in our seminary for three hours each afternoon for three weeks. This morning, November 2, I preached in our K-6, and after the invitation, Paul Carlin (fifth grade) received Christ as his Saviour. Last Saturday I was blessed to lead Ivann (ee-vahn) to the Lord in San Raphael while on personal evangelism. Last Thursday morning 12 were saved while conducting our Market Ministry. Two weeks ago 40,000 Creole tracts arrived here securely from Hope Tract Ministry of York, South Carolina. Last night I preached an overview of Revelations, completing 66 nights for each book of the Bible.

Tomorrow night the Haitian government is expected to announce the top winners of the recent presidential election that was nullified in August due to widespread corruption. The top three vote-getters should be involved in a runoff election late in December.

Two weeks ago I drove to Gonaives. I am involving myself in two new church plants in that city with two Bible college teachers whom I worked closely with from 2008 to 2012. The men are Pastor Innocent and Pastor Medes.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter. We are very grateful for you and your involvement. Please accept our heartfelt appreciation for your prayers and financial gifts.

Respectfully,

Keith and Theresa
